

Kodex

The Yearbook of the International Society for Book Studies (IBG)
Edited by Christine Haug (Munich) and Vincent Kaufmann (St. Gallen)
Harrassowitz Publishing House · Wiesbaden

HARRASSOWITZ ■
Verlag ■ ■

2 · 2012      Bestseller and Bestseller Studies

Content

Preface	V
Rainer Schmitz The Bestseller Myth. Doing Business with Success	1
Vincent Kaufmann On an Impossible Theory of Bestsellers	23
Sophie Rudolph The Economies of Adaptation – When Bestsellers become Blockbusters	39
Franziska Mayer The Promotion of Culture as an Event. Literary Prizes and Bestseller Effects since 2000	53
Slávka Rude-Porubská Bestseller in/without Translation? On Foreign Language Fiction Titles in the Original in the German Book Market	71
Ulrich Schmid Bestsellers in Russia	91
Stephanie Kurschus Transforming Discrepancies into Common Ground. Latvia and Italy	107
Gudrun Weiland Strategic Seriality – Production, Distribution and Reception of Dime Novel Series, 1919-1939	123
Gerda Moser The Balance of Tension and Relaxation – The Success of Thrillers and Self-Help Books from the Perspective of Amusement Theory	139
Vanessa Werner Sarrazin – The Characteristics of a Bestseller	159
Harald Henzler Digital Bestsellers – What exactly is a Bestseller?	175
Michael Muselmann The Origin of Bestselling Fiction Books – Interviews with Andrea Maria Schenkel, Bernd Blüm and Rainer Schmitz	185
Muriel Schindler Bestselling Authors as Reflected in the Current Swiss Book Market – Interviews with Lukas Hartmann and Rolf Dobelli	199
List of Contributors	211